

Primary Care Providers are your main contact to the world of health care. Your Primary Care Provider is focused on maintaining your overall health and wellness while diagnosing and treating illnesses and injuries that arise along the way. This provides much better long-term health outcomes than visiting hospitals and urgent care facilities who are only interested in fixing an immediate problem or injury.

View PDF